Dear Parents,

6 Dolphins visit to KES – visiting author

Your child has been chosen to visit King Edward’s School (KES) for an author visit on the morning of Thursday 3rd October 2019. Matt Dickinson is an award winning author and filmmaker with a passion for climbing and adventure. He will talk to the children about his own Everest Adventures to provide inspiration for their reading and writing

The cost of this visit is £2.20 which will cover the bus fare to and from the event. We will leave school after registration and return to school for lunch.

Due to the charges we must ask for a voluntary contribution of £2.20 towards the cost of the trip The 1988 Education Act and Governors’ Policy requires us to make it clear that our intended visit can only take place if parents are prepared to make a voluntary contribution. There is no obligation to contribute and no child will be omitted from taking part, however it will be necessary to have substantial parental contributions for the visit to go ahead. If you are unable to make a contribution for whatever reason, you MUST contact Mr Smith (Head Teacher).

Please send contributions (CASH ONLY) to school by Thursday 26th September 2019 together with the reply slip below.

Yours sincerely,

Mrs C Peat
School Librarian
